1. No one in Yugoslavia believes in the possibility of a combined Soviet-Satellite attack against Yugoslavia. However, if such an attack should occur, [] if Yugoslavia is left by itself to fight the aggressors, the Yugoslav Army will be unable to defend the country and no one will resist the aggressors. On the other hand, should foreign troops assist the Yugoslav Army, [] one part of the Yugoslav armed forces, together with the Hungarian minority, will join the aggressors, while the Yugoslav Nationalists will make use of the situation to ask the Western armed forces to assist them against the regime. This would place the Yugoslav Army in a much worse position.

2. An eventual Yugoslav attack against Albania would be popular in Yugoslavia. []
